THE NEW REBELLION.

Murders in Louisiana During the Year.

Ku-Klux Outrages in Huntsville, Ala.

Republican Meeting Fired Upon.

Two Persons Killed and Many Wounded.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 1, 1868.

Murders in Louisiana.

Gen. Hatch, the Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen's Affairs for Louisiana, has forwarded a special report to the War office, showing that there were, during the year ending October 1, 1868, officially reported to him as committed in the State, one hundred and sixty-six persons killed, and two hundred and twenty-[illegible] maltreated. This [illegible] list has been made out in detail, giving the names and residences of the persons murdered or assaulted, as well as of parties committing the outrage whenever it could be ascertained, and also noting the action of the civil authorities. It appears that three-fourths of the number killed or outraged were blacks, and that their assailants were in most cases whites. In a large proportion of the cases, the civil authorities took no action whatever, and in many more they took none till the guilty parties had been arrested by the military. General Hatch says the list does not include the names of any persons abused and slaughtered at Brashear, Opelousas, New Orleans and other points, and he is certain that in the country many more murders were committed of which he never received official notice.

HUNTSVILLE, ALA., November 1.—Three hundred Ku-Klux were parading about last night, while a Republican mass meeting was in progress. Fifty or sixty shots were fired. Judge Horton, a masked man, was mortally wounded. Two negroes were killed, and many wounded, all Republicans. Intense excitement prevails.

CITY MATTERS.

FAIR AT RINK.—A grand fair will be held in the Keystone Rink, commencing on Wednesday and closing on Friday night with a grand promenade. For particulars of this interesting affair see advertisement.

BURGLARY IN ALLEGHENY.—The house of Philip Wertz, in the Eighth ward, Allegheny, was burglariously entered on Saturday night and a valuable overcoat stolen. There is no clue to the thief.

GENERAL FIGHT.—A general fight took place last night, a little before twelve o'clock, between a number of men, on Virgin alley, above Smithfield street. Two of the participants, named Madden and Parker, were arrested, and conveyed to the lock-up.

BILLIARD MATCH TO-NIGHT.—The billiard contest between Harry Warren and Richard Stafford, of this city, takes place in Birmingham this evening. The prize is an elegant cue, valued at fifty dollars. Both men have been practicing assiduously, and the game will undoubtedly be very close.

HEAVY LOSS.—Mr. James Skillen, residing in this city, lost his pocketbook containing one hundred and thirty dollars, on Penn street, on Friday last, in the following manner: He went into Blanchard's grocery store to make some purchases, and after concluding the same went out, leaving his money and book laying on the counter. He returned shortly afterward, but nobody had seen it, nor has it yet been heard of.

ROW AT A BALL.—During the progress of a ball at Ashland Hall on Friday evening, a man named Peter Wickline went to the door intoxicated and demanded admittance. "Jimmy" Hamill, President of the Dryden Boat Club, under whose auspices the ball was held, refused to admit Wickline, whereupon the latter seized him by the coat and tore it nearly off his back. Jimmy made information against Wickline at the Mayor's office for malicious mischief, and the accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Monthly Report of the Superintendent of the Fire Alarm.

Mr. Samuel T. Paisley, Superintendent of the Fire Alarm Telegraph, furnishes the following report for the month of October:

Number of alarms of fire, nineteen; number of blows, in consequence of alarm, struck on the big bell, one hundred and forty-seven; number of blows in striking the hours, hours, two hundred and forty-eight; total number of blows struck, four hundred and fourteen.

The total loss by fire in the consolidated city during the month was $18,22[illegible]; insurance $12,000. The largest fire of the month was that of Prosser's glue factory, on Fifth avenue. Of the fires three are supposed to have been incendiaries; three caught from defective flues; four from sparks; five from accident, and four from carelessness.

Business at the Mayor's Office.

During the month of October the following business was done at the Pittsburgh Mayor's office: The whole number of arrests for drunkenness, disorderly conduct and vagrancy and entered on the watch house docket was two hundred and eighty-one. Of this number fifty were for vagrancy; one hundred were for drunkenness, and one hundred and thirty-one for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. They were disposed of as follows: Fifty-seven paid the fines imposed; one hundred and five were committed for periods ranging from twenty-four hours to thirty days, and one hundred and nineteen were discharged. Twenty-one informations for disorderly conduct were taken through the day and entered on the day book. Small fines were imposed and paid in all of the latter cases. There were also about six cases of violation of the City Ordinance, the offenders being punished by small fines. In addition to the above there was an average each day of two Court informations, but of course they did not all reach the Court, having either been amicably settled by the parties concerned or else dismissed for want of evidence. The largest number of informations were for surety of the peace and assault and battery. Considering the fact that police matters were extremely dull during the past month the above will serve as a fair exhibit of the amount of business done at our Mayor's office.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Court of Quarter Sessions.—Judge Sterrett.

FRIDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Court met at the usual hour Friday morning. The following business was transacted:

A HAIR OF THE DOG TO CURE THE WOUND.

Polikarp Miller, of Lower St. Clair township, was placed on trial for keeping a ferocious dog; Mathias Birmlinger prosecutrix. The information, which was made before Justice Lipp, of South Pittsburgh, was as follows:

"That Pollikarp Miller did then and there, in said township, did keep and maintained a ferocious dog, who did, then and there, when I was passing the road, did bite me in my leg, and on request he gave me some hair from the dog to put on said wound to prevent great swelling, etc."

The prosecutor testified to the facts set forth in the information, and the jury found a verdict of not guilty, the costs to be divided between the prosecutor and defendant.

PLEAD GUILTY.

Edward Smith, indicted for committing a felonious assault and battery upon Henry Shultz, plead guilty to unlawfully wounding the said Shultz. Sentence deferred.

A PLEA OF NOLLE CONTENDRE.

Officer Charles O'Donnell was indicted for committing an assault and battery upon Gratton Burbridge, colored. It appears that in September last a crowd of boys, Burbridge among the number, assembled in the vicinity of Fort Maloney, and were acting disorderly. Burbridge was arrested by officer O'Donnell. At the hearing before the Mayor it was shown that Burbridge was not engaged in the affair, and he was discharged. On the day following a charge was instituted against the officer by the boy's step-father. The defendant entered a plea of nolle contendre. Sentence deferred.

The next case taken up was that of John J. Voltz, indicted for embezzlement and larceny by bailee. It was alleged that in June last the defendant was treasurer of a certain association, known as the "Goethe-Vereins No. 1," and received money belonging to the society, to the amount of thirty-seven dollars and seventy cents, and did not account for it. It appeared that the society was organized for beneficial purposes—a man paid fifty cents and became a member, and if a member became sick he drew out four dollars. The amount of $37 70 was paid into the treasury, and a quarrel sprang up about the place of meeting, causing a division of the society.

It was alleged, on the part of the defense, that Mr. Voltz was one of the most respectable citizens of Allegheny county, and some of the members of the society had requested him to hold on to the money and not pay it to the branch of the society that demanded it.

Judge Sterrett remarked, after one or two witnesses had been called for the defense, that it was evident that this was a quarrel between the two branches of the society. The jury found a verdict of not guilty.

A FEROCIOUS DOG CASE.

Edward Hays was placed on trial on an indictment for keeping a ferocious dog. It was alleged that the defendant, who resides in the Eighteenth ward, near the Sharpsburg bridge, in September last kept a ferocious dog, which attacked a little son of Nicholas Snyder, biting the boy in the leg.

A number of witnesses, who reside near Mr. Hays, testified that they did not know that the dog was ferocious, and had seen children playing with it frequently. Jury out.

Court adjourned until Monday, November 9th.

Supreme Court—Full Bench.

FRIDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Johnson et al. vs. Cowan; Westmoreland county. Argued by Laird for plaintiff in error, and by Foster contra.

Henry et al. vs. Carson et al.; Westmoreland county. Argued by Cowan for plaintiff in error, and by Foster and Laird contra.

Steele vs. Lineberger; Armstrong county. Argued by Golden for plaintiff in error, and by Gilpin contra.

Ralston vs. Ralston; Armstrong county. Argued by Golden for appellants, and by Stewart and Black contra.

George A. Smith, of Fulton County, on motion of D. H. Foster, Esq., was duly admitted to practice as an attorney in this court.

United States Court—Judge McCandless.

Court opened at ten o'clock Saturday morning, when the case of Simmonds vs. Mary A. Sands, in bankruptcy, which has been on trial for several days past was resumed. It has not yet been concluded.

The following petitions for final discharge were filed: Charles Itzel, Northumberland county; J. K. Supplee, of Union county; Daniel B. Riber, of Union county. The usual orders were made.

Sentences Saturday—Supreme Court Proceedings.

Quarter Sessions—Full Bench.

Court met at ten o'clock Saturday morning, and the following business was transacted:

SENTENCED FOR LARCENY.

Wm. J. M. Hall, alias Wm. Brown, convicted on two charges of larceny, was first called up for sentence. He had stolen a revolver and a roll of cloth, valued at about $20 75, from Mr. Mark B. Kelso. He was sentenced to pay the costs in each case and undergo four months' imprisonment in the county jail.

LARCENY OF SHINGLES.

Annel Ingraham, convicted of the larceny of a quantity of shingles from Patterson's lumber yard, Allegheny, was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.

UNLAWFUL SHOOTING.

John Kesslar, convicted of unlawfully wounding John Henry Sabita, by shooting him in the eye with a wad fired from a pistol, was sentenced to pay the costs and to undergo one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary.

TEDDY M'CARTHY SENTENCED TO SEVEN YEARS IN THE WESTERN PENITENTIARY.

The notorious Thaddeus McCarthy, alias Teddy McCarthy, was called up for sentence. It will be remembered he was convicted of committing a felonious assault upon officer McMullen, in Richter's saloon, Penn street, by which the officer was permanently disabled. He was also found guilty of committing a felonious assault upon David Wilson, by striking him on the head with a boulder while he was walking along the sidewalk with a lady. He plead guilty to a charge of malicious mayhem in biting off a portion of Wm. McClelland's nose.

Previous to being sentenced the prisoner asked and was given permission to make a statement. In regard to the assault upon officer McMullen he said he struck the officer with his fist, but not hard enough to knock him down. He alleged that Wilson had followed him in the street and knocked him down, and he determined to have revenge the next time he met Wilson. The fight in which the mayhem was committed was a mutual one, and while admitting that he did bite off a portion of McClelland's nose, he urged, by way of palliation, that the latter had disfigured him for life by biting off a portion of his upper lip.

Judge Sterrett remarked that he thought it his duty to impose the heaviest penalty in the first two cases, and sentenced the defendant to undergo three years imprisonment in the Penitentiary on each case. In regard to the mayhem case His Honor remarked, that as the fight appeared to be mutual, a lighter sentence would be imposed. The Court then sentenced him to undergo a further imprisonment of one year in the Western Penitentiary.

SENTENCES FOR ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

John Waesch, who plead guilty to committing an assault and battery upon Julia Smith, was sentenced to pay the costs and a fine of five dollars.

Michael and Louis Hackmeyer, convicted of committing an assault and battery upon C. O. Lappe' were each sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and the costs.

William Baumgarten, who plead nolle contendre to an indictment charging him with committing an assault and battery upon a little boy, by driving a wagon over him, was next called up. The assault was committed in Birmingham, on the twenty-eighth of May last. He was sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and costs.

Supreme Court---Full Bench.

Ralston vs. Ralston, Armstrong county. Argued by Golden for appellant and by Stewart and Clark contra.

George A. Smith, of Fulton county, and Albert G. Lucas, of Pittsburgh, on motion of Hon. H. D. Foster, were duly qualified and admitted to practice in this Court.

McElrath et. al. vs. Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad Company, et. al. In equity. On motion of Attorney Gibson it was ordered that a hearing be had on the exceptions before the master, on Tuesday, November 17th, next, and that the record be transmitted from the Eastern to the Western District.

Magill vs. Magill; Allegheny county. Argument on rule to show cause fixed for Saturday, November 7th.

Lane vs. Lane; Westmoreland county. Argued by Laird for plaintiff in error and by Foster, contra.

White's appeal; Armstrong county. Judgment of non pros.

Chingan cases; Westmoreland county. Continued for submission on or before the 14th of November next.

Baker's appeal; Westmoreland county. Argued by Laird for plaintiff in error and by Foster, contra.

Commonwealth vs. Schnyder; Armstrong county. Submitted.

Common Pleas—Full Bench.

In the divorce case of Catharine Stemler vs. Adam Stemler, C. C. Taylor, Esq., was appointed a Commissioner to take testimony.

In the case of H. S. Himblewright vs. David Himblewright, a petition in divorce was presented and a subpoena awarded.

In the case of McCormick ex. rel. vs. S. E. House, J. Harvey Robb, Esq., was appointed Commissioner.

In the case of the Commonwealth ex. rel. vs. C. S. Murray, a petition was presented and a trial by jury ordered.

New Seedling Potato.

On Friday we examined some fine specimens of Vanderveer's new Seedling Potato, which has been recently introduced here, and promises to become a most valuable addition to the potato list. They were raised upon the farm of N. G. Macrum, Esq. (of the firm of Macrum & Carlisle,) at Fair Oaks Station, near Economy, and although the season was very unfavorable, the yield was extraordinary—as high as forty bushels having been gathered from one bushel of seed. This was on the best part of the ground planted, but the yield in the less favorable localities was about thirty bushels to each bushel planted. The planting was done on the 10th of June, in the midst of a prevailing drouth, and no special attention or cultivation was given. This seedling is said to be as early as the Early Goodrich or Dykeman, but owing to the backwardness of the season Mr. Macrum could not test its merits in this respect. The potato is very large, oblong, smooth and thin-skinned. The eyes are very shallow, which is a desirable quality in preparing them for the table. The flesh is very firm, solid to the heart, and when cooked is mealy, white and fine flavored. Mr. Macrum regards this seedling as promising most valuable results, and his experiments with it thus far are of the most satisfactory character. The production of a new potatoe possessing the merits which this one indicates, is a matter of sufficient importance to attract the attention of every progressive farmer and gardener. Messrs. Beckham & Long, 127 Liberty street, have a limited stock of these potatoes on hand, where persons wishing to examine them can do so.

Coroner's Inquests During the Month.

During the month of October, Coroner Wm. Clawson held inquests on the bodies of the following persons: Samuel Black, an elderly gentleman, resident of Rochester, Pa., death from apoplexy; Sarah Burk, death from apoplexy, Twelfth ward; Wm. Chalfant, killed by falling from a stone train on the Pan Handle Railroad; George Gillimore, fireman, killed by the explosion of Engine No. 12 on the Connellsville Railroad; Patrick Malone, killed by a sky-rocket fired from one of the wagons in the Democratic procession on Ross street; Geo. Georing, death from suicide; John Ramaley, killed by being struck by the steps of a car of the Connellsville Railroad, at Dam No. 1; an unknown man found drowned in the Ohio, at the head of Brunot's Island; Wm. Daley, killed on the Pan Handle Railroad, at Noblestown, by Engine No. 7; Emma J. Sawyer, a little girl, death from natural causes; Mrs. Margaret Feele, death from natural causes—total eleven.

LOCAL POLITICS.

At the East Liberty Wigwam.

The meeting at the Wigwam, at East Liberty, on Friday night, was very interesting and spirited. Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, delivered a most admirable address, which was well received by the large audience present. He was followed by John H. Hampton, Esq., in an earnest and effective speech.

Mass Meeting at Brady's Bend.

The Republicans of Brady's Bend, Armstrong county, held a mass meeting on Friday night, the largest ever witnessed in Armstrong county. Delegations from Kittanning, Red Bank, Sligo, Sugar Creek, Rimersburg, Worthington and Martinsburg were present. About five hundred Boys in Blue, with lanterns, torches, flags and transparencies, paraded the streets. The town was brilliantly illuminated. Speeches were made by Gen. Sweitzer, of Pittsburgh; Gen. Abbott, of Toledo, Ohio; Hon. T. J. Bigham and Hon. H. A. S. D. Dudley, of Pittsburgh, and Major Reed, of Clarion.

The Closing of the Campaign at Noblestown To-Night.

North Fayette and neighboring townships will hold their last meeting to-night, which will be addressed by John M. Kirkpatrick and C. W. Robb, Esqs. We call the attention of the numerous readers of the COMMERCIAL in the vicinity to the fact, and hope this last grand rally will be a rally along the whole line.

Rally in Moon Township.

The Republicans of Moon township had a grand rally on Friday night, at Sharon Schoolhouse. George Burns presided, with Robert McClaren as Secretary. Speeches were made by Charles W. Robb and John M. Kirkpatrick. The Schoolhouse was filled to repletion, and a good time was had. They promise to knock the Democrats "out of time" to-morrow, and they will do it.

Republican Meeting at Dravosburg.

The Republicans of Dravosburg and adjoining localities, held a large and enthusiastic meeting on Saturday evening, in Dravosburg. It was intended to hold the meeting in the open air, but the weather being so disagreeable, it was adjourned to the public school house. John D. Risher, Esq., was elected President, and a number of other officers were chosen. Thomas Ewing and R. J. Powers, Esqs., addressed the meeting at considerable length, and at the close of their remarks received numerous and hearty plaudits. The meeting then adjourned.

Seventeenth Ward Attention.

The Republicans of the Seventeenth Ward, (Lawrenceville,) met on Saturday evening and appointed a Vigilance Committee for to-morrow, the names of whom will be found in another column. The Republicans of the Ward will hold a meeting at the Wigwam this evening at half past seven o'clock, when it is hoped there will be a general attendance. The Vigilance Committee will also meet at the same time, when every member is expected to be present. The Seventeenth Ward Republicans propose to largely increase their vote.

Fourth Ward Club, Attention.

A special business meeting of the Grant and Colfax Club of the Fourth Ward, Pittsburgh, will be held at the headquarters at half-past six o'clock this evening, when all members and the different committees are requested to be present.

Republican Meeting in Birmingham.

A meeting of Republicans was held Saturday evening in Market Hall, Birmingham, which was very large, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The meeting, which was also very enthusiastic, was ably addressed by Hon. R. B. Carnahan.

The Last Rallies To-Night.

The last rallies of the campaign will take place to-night at the following places, to be addressed by the speakers named:

Allegheny City, (late Manchester,) at Hamilton's drug store, corner of Beaver avenue and Locust street. A. M. Watson, Esq., and General Wm. Blakeley.

Hannah's School House, Wilkins township. B. F. Lucas and Miles S. Humphreys, Esqs.

Noblestown. J. M. Kirkpatrick and C. W. Robb, Esqs.

In McClure township, at Hussey's Hotel, Woods' Run. Robert Pollock and W. C. Moreland, Esqs.

The Organ Concert to be Repeated.

The weather was very inclement on Saturday evening, as perhaps everybody is aware, but that did not prevent the assembling of a very large congregation in the Third Presbyterian Church, Sixth avenue, to hear the new organ, under the skillful manipulation of Prof. John H. Willcox, of Boston, and well were all repaid for breasting the storm. There were twelve selections on the programe, of a sacred and classical character, all of which were performed in so masterly a manner that it would be difficult to select either for special mention. However, Prof. Willcox's own composition, entitled "Representation of a Thunder Storm," deserves a word of commendation. The deep, majestic tones of the organ were more thoroughly developed in this composition, and the representation was so complete that it required but little stretch of the imagination to induce the hearer to think the storm was real. The organ is certainly one of the very best in the city, and in the hands of such an accomplished performer as Prof. Willcox gives forth most agreeable voice.

Many persons were unable to attend on Saturday evening, owing to a variety of causes, and as they are very anxious to hear the organ tested to its full compass, Prof. Willcox has kindly consented to give another entertainment this evening. Complimentary cards of admission will be distributed through several of the music dealers of the city from ten o'clock this morning.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The handsome and dashing actress, Miss Helen Western, will commence an engagement at the Opera House this evening, when she will appear as "Cynthia" in the drama of "The Flowers of the Forest." She has just concluded a brief but successful engagement at Cleveland.

VARIETIES.—Another star will make her appearance this evening, Miss Louise Bashelle, a performer upon the flying wire. Mlle. Therese, the graceful danseuse and vocalist, and the famous negro comedians, will also appear.

POSTPONED.—The female pedestrian race at West View track, which was to take place to-day, has been postponed until Thursday afternoon, on account of the bad condition of the track.

BURNELL'S WONDERS.—Hundreds and hundreds of ladies have flocked to the museum the past week to witness the Congress of living wonders presented there. This week new attractions will be introduced. Gen. Green, who is said to rank among the smallest of Liliputians, will appear on exhibition for the first time in this city to-day. Also, a genuine living boa constrictor, being the only one on exhibition in this country. Miss Leak, the lady born without arms, the four legged child, white and black twins, in connection with all the other attractions, will also be presented.

MEETINGS.—The Allegheny Board of Control and Birmingham Council regular meeting night comes on Tuesday, but it is probable that no quorum will be present at either.

A NEW proposition is now being made in England for a uniform cheap railway fare, to convey a person for six cents in the third-class, twelve cents in the second, and one shilling, British, in the first, irrespective of the distance traveled; and it is contended that this reduced system would pay.

Deafness, Blindness, Catarrh,

And all affections of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, Liver and Nervous System, treated successfully at Dr. Aborn's Medical and Surgical Institute, No. 134 Smithfield street. tf

DIED:

HERN—On Friday, October 30th, at 12 o'clock M., of pneumonia, SOPHIA E. HERN, in the forty-sixth year of her age.

Her funeral will take place from Trinity Church, Sixth avenue, on MONDAY, the 2d day of November, 1868, at 2½ P. M. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

MARGARET MERLYN, IS THE TITLE of Mrs. SWISSHELM'S long-talked of Book. It is a tale of Woman's Wages, and embraces all the home truths for which the author is noted, and which are here interwoven with a dramatic interest that is unflagging to the end. An accomplished critic who has read it says: "There is not a dull page in it." It gives startling revelations of the inside workings of private benevolent institutions, and must be deeply interesting to all who would like to know what sometimes is done with the money paid to charitable societies. It will be commenced as a serial, November 26, and run eight months, in the St. Cloud "Journal," the successor to Mrs. Swisshelm's St. Cloud (Minnesota) "Visitor," which is now the largest paper and has double the circulation of any other in Northern Minnesota, and contains minute information of that most interesting portion of our unknown countries—The Great Northwest. Terms of subscription $2 per annum in advance. Address WM. B. MITCHELL, St. Cloud, Minnesota.

RED JACKET

AXES,

COLBURN'S PATENT.

Patented July 9, 1867. Re-issued Aug. 18, 1868.

Extracts from Letters and Reports of the working qualities of the Axe.

I. Your Axe is bound to be THE AXE.
II. It will cut 35 per cent. better.
III. My brother lost one arm in the war, but with your Axe, he can cut as well as any one else can.
IV. If I could not get another, twenty-five ($25) dollars would not buy it.
V. It will cut hoop-poles better than any other Axe.
VI. I would not be without it for anything.
VII. The only objection is, it goes too far into the wood.
VIII. Men who chop for a living universally approve of it, &c., &c., ad infinitum.

For sale by all reposible dealers in the United States.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium, being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a Life Insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter, the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or to its General Agents.

LOCAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies, with suitable indorsement, should be addressed TO THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.
